

Please respect and protect the valued NJ telephone consumer protection law. I urge the federal government not to take measures to weaken the law.